

To the trustee handling bankruptcy case no 24-11307-AMC,
My name is Deidre Jones I filed bankruptcy on 03/17/24 With Micheal Cibik Law I paid him 4000.00 to represent me everything was done over the phone email and text at the time of filing I explained everything in detail to Mr Cibik in reference to my domestic violence situation with my ex husband I also explained to him that I had filed bankruptcy in the past I also explained to him that I did not live in the home until this year once my ex husband was removed from the home. I then moved back into the home without any knowledge that the home was in foreclosure. Every document was given to the attorney that was required including my ssn I never gave the attorney any false info. The Attorney never supplied info to were the monies should be sent for the bankruptcy and I have dealt with many of his associates no one once told me I wasnt allowed to file bankruptcy to save my home. I knew nothing I sent everything in to him and then I end up with no attorney to continue to represent me I have the funds to pay my bankruptcy Please reconsider my bankruptcy situation and dismissal and grant permission to allow this bankruptcy to go to the end I promise to make all payments on time.

Thank You for Consideration

Deidre Jones
